- ✚ Welcome/Introductions: Dr. Marv Pichla
- ✚ I&E Presenter: Miracle McGlown: 1: Eleven Leather Goods

- ✚ With the help of family, friends, the community, and a wide range of entrepreneurial and economic development support groups in Flint, Miracle has turned a leather-working hobby into a flourishing business specializing in bespoke handbags. 1: Eleven Leather Goods, offers a large variety of premium purses, clutches, totes, duffels and wallets for men and women – each designed and sewn by McGlown. The bags are getting rave review and are available on his website and at the recently reopened Shops on Saginaw in downtown Flint.

Miracle McGlown, then met Comma Bookstore & Social Bookstore owner Egypt Otis, who introduced him to 100K Ideas, a nonprofit business incubator. McGlown entered 100K's Pitch for $K idea competition in July – taking first place and winning enough money to buy more tooling and business insurance for his growing company. Pitch for $K is designed to foster the entrepreneurial mindset in Flint and Genesee County and help bring ideas to life.
