“So YOU Want To Be A Writer?!”

(Say YES!)

Mid-Michigan Writers, Inc.

Did you ever think about writing a cool short story, engaging poem, funny blog or even a historical novel? And did you wish there was a group out there that could help?

Well you/we are in LUCK!

ACC TALKS is privileged to have a great panel of presenters from the Michigan Writers, Inc. group to offer their ideas, encouragement and examples. This long standing non-profit group based in West Branch offers free critique sessions, workshops and community support!

Please bring your thoughts... questions and join the discussion! Everyone is welcome to attend.
