

What Next?

Alpena Community College – Oscoda Campus
Monthly Pure Communication Edition

Partnering for Paul Bunyan Days

After missing a couple of years, the ACC Oscoda Campus joined other groups in celebrating Oscoda’s Paul Bunyan Days. Campus team members brought back the Lumber Jack & Jill Photo Contest. Check out this years winners!

Christopher Hayes with his two children. They came dressed up with their own homemade axes.

Chris & Emersyn Dembrowske of East Tawas.

CAREER COACHING

alpenacc.emsicc.com

Getting a little “coaching” or figuring out your career moves doesn’t always have to be one-on-one with a professional advisor.

Connecting online to ACC’s Career Coach may be the right, more personalized place to start.

Available 24/7...check it out.

Professional Development Time

“I’m From the Government and I’m Here to Help You!”

Wed., October 20 @ 1-2:15 pm
Oscoda Campus, Room 213

Join Michael Nunnely, Associate Regional Director of the MI Small Business Development Center (SBDC) for a special entrepreneurship discussion of governmental programs and services available in our own backyard.

Thank you Dr. Thomas Dowling (FSU)

On behalf of Alpena Community College, the Oscoda Education & Training Group wants to offer this special note of appreciation to Dr. Dowling for sharing his time and thoughts as our September ACC TALKS presenter.

Stay tuned for this semester's
COMMUNITY ENRICHMENT Classes!

They will be separately
announced in the near future.
