

Personal Protection Order (Nondomestic)

Case No 23-2231-PH

Donald C. MacMaster v Robert T. Tosch

ATTACHMENT TO 3rd AMENDED PERSONAL PROTECTION ORDER (FOLLOWING HEARING OF 08/05/2025)

5. Robert T. Tosch is prohibited from:

(e.) Appearing on any ACC campus or property or contacting any ACC officials or employees, as defined below:

(i) Any individual employed by Alpena Community College at the time of the contact; and

(ii) Any former employee of Alpena Community College who is identified in the Petition for PPO, including Kathy Marsh, Steven Fosgard, Mark Curtis, Jeffrey Blumenthal, and Max Lindsay; and

(iii) Former employees, Olin Joynton and Curt Davis; and

(iv) Any current employee of Alpena Community College who is separated from employment at Alpena Community College after the date of this Order, if such person gives written notice to Respondent that such former employee does not want to have any contact with Respondent. Such notice shall be effective when given by first class mail.

(v) Any Trustee of Alpena Community College (except that Respondent may send mail or email to a trustee only at an official ACC address, as posted on the college website.)

(vi) Any individual representing Alpena Community College in an official capacity, including attorneys and legal staff. However, contact between Respondent's attorney and Petitioner's attorney is expressly permitted. If Respondent is acting in pro per, contact between Respondent and Petitioner's attorney is permitted for purposes of notice and procedural matters involving the case. Any in-person contact by Respondent with Petitioner's attorneys and legal staff is prohibited unless it occurs in court or pursuant to court order or with the express written consent of Petitioner's attorney.

(vii) Contact by the Respondent with the express written consent of any of the above-identified individuals is permitted.

(f) Attending any meeting of the Alpena Community College Board of Trustees in person.

Personal Protection Order (Nondomestic)

Case No 23-2231-PH

Donald C. MacMaster v Robert T. Tosch

(g) Prohibited contact shall include contact by the Respondent with any of the individuals identified above in person or by mail, email, telephone, posting or delivering a message through any medium of communication including the internet or computer or any electronic medium.

(h) Respondent is prohibited from engaging, either directly or indirectly, in any of the prohibited contact specified in the Personal Protection Order. Indirect prohibited contact shall include the use of a proxy, agent or other third-party acting on behalf of Respondent. Respondent is also prohibited from engaging in prohibited contact under a fictitious name or through the use of the name of another person.
